Police Investigating School Bus Accident

Bus overturned with 14 students on-board

Howard County Police are investigating a single-vehicle school bus accident that occurred today in the 12000 block of Folly Quarter Road near Sheppard's Lane in Glenelg.

Police and paramedics received a call at 8:05 this morning from witnesses who saw a Glenelg Country School bus overturn while traveling westbound on Sheppard's Lane. Upon arrival, police and rescue workers found the bus on its side with 14 students, ranging from ages 5 to 15, inside. The students all were transported to Howard County General Hospital for evaluation, some with minor injuries.

The driver, Stephanie Delph, 28, was flown to Shock Trauma in serious condition. The bus is owned by Ashwell Transport in Lisbon, Md.

Police are continuing to investigate the possible cause of the incident.
